

clothing, but, which is proper for women professing godliness, with good works” (1 Timothy 2:9-10). In these verses, Paul gave three pieces of the character-outfit Christian women are to wear for their God-given role in the church.

First, Christian women are to dress modestly. The term “modest apparel” [proper clothing, NAS; respectable apparel, ESV] is from a word (kosmios) that means respectable, honorable, in good taste. The Greek word occurs again only one other time where it is used of an elder’s qualification to be “of good behavior” [orderly, ASV; respectable, NAS] (1 Timothy 3:2). A person’s outward appearance is a mere reflection of her heart (1 Peter 3:3-4). What do Christian women reflect when they wear clothes that attract undue attention to them, whether it is too much or not enough? A woman who wants all the attention will not easily be submissive to men in matters of leading worship.

Second, Christian women are to dress their hearts respectfully. The word “propriety” [shamefacedness, KJV; modestly, NAS; with modesty, ESV] is translated from a word (aidos) that means modesty, reverence, respect. The word occurs again in some manuscripts only in Hebrews 12:28 where it is translated “reverence.” Respect or reverence for God is necessary for a woman to fulfill her role of submission to a man leading in worship. Respect for God’s Word will allow her to submit and to follow God’s instruction on any matter, including worshiping God in spirit and in truth (John 4:24).

The Attire of a Woman’s Heart

1 Timothy 2:9-12 is a passage of Scripture most “modern thinkers” do not like. The very idea that God would limit what women can do in the church is a real turn-off to many people. What people need to realize, however, is that the Almighty God, who created us, knows what works best in human relationships, whether in the home or in the church! Concerning leading worship where both men and women are present, God wills that “men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting” (1 Timothy 2:8). The word translated “men” (from aner) is gender specific for males (same word in Acts 8:12; 17:12; 1 Timothy 2:12). In contrast to men who are to worship by providing holy leadership, women are to worship by allowing the men to lead. This is not easy to those of a worldly mind. However, when Christian women correctly “dress” their hearts, God’s “commandments are not burdensome” (1 John 5:3), and His will is done!

Internal Wardrobe

Paul, through the Holy Spirit, addressed the proper, spiritual clothing when he wrote, “in like manner also, that the women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and moderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly (con’t)
