

lured away, turned back, diluted, or delayed. I will not flinch in the face of sacrifice, hesitate in the presence of adversity, negotiate at the table of the enemy, ponder at the pool of popularity, or meander in the maze of mediocrity. I won't give up, shut up, or slow up for the cause of Christ. I am a disciple of Jesus. I must go till I drop, preach all that I know, and work till He comes. And when He comes to get His own, He'll have no trouble recognizing me. My colors are clear!

Let's reference a few of the sentiments. You check out the rest.

Fellowship — "If we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7).

The die has been cast — "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me" (Luke 9:23). "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God" (Luke 9:62).

Done with low living — If we have been united together in the likeness of His death [baptism,], certainly we also shall be in the likeness of His resurrection, knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin (Rom. 6:5,6).

Am I, are we, "part of the fellowship of the unashamed?" Are our "colors clear?" It's time for soul searching.

Fellowship Of The Unashamed Alan Adams

I have no idea who wrote the long quotation that shortly follows, nor how the author of the words lived his life. I do know that each of the sentiments expressed echoes plain Bible teaching.

I am part of the fellowship of the unashamed. The die has been cast. I have stepped over the line. The decision has been made. I am a disciple of Jesus. I won't look back, let up, slow down, back away, or be still. My past is redeemed, my present makes sense, my future is secure. I am finished and done with low living, sight walking, small planning, smooth knees, colorless dreams, tame visions, mundane talking, chintzy giving, and dwarfed goals. I no longer need preeminence, prosperity, position, promotion, plaudits, or popularity. I don't have to be right, first, tops, recognized, praised, regarded, or rewarded. My face is set, my gait is fast, my goal is heaven, my road is narrow, my Guide is reliable, my mission is clear. I cannot be bought, compromised, detoured, (con't)
